A Packing House.

The subject of establishing a packing house at some convenient point in Holt county, is being extensively agitated by many of our citizens. The prevailing low prices of hogo and the high prices paid for meets in all the great marts of the world has set many of our citizens to thinking on this subject. Some one or more of our enterprising fellow-citizens ought to take this matter in hand, and by next hog season all necessary arrangements should be Her-fected for killing and packing or yown begs. Forest City, we think would be the most eligible point, for fee first packing house in Holt county. Let the subject be thoroughly canvissed by those who have the best interceds of Host county at heart.
